Now accepting applications for the ...

Karen Lopp Memorial Scholarship

The Karen Lopp Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Karen Lopp, a Ph.D. student in the School Psychology program at Georgia State University. Karen was committed to several multi-cultural issues, in particular, the LGBT community and African-American girls. Her life and work stands as a model for all of those who are in the helping professions. She stood up to social injustice. It is our hope that, through the provision of this scholarship, her crusading spirit and efforts lives on.

Applicants should meet the following criteria:

- Be a current graduate student in the GSU Counseling and Psychological Services (CPS) department. Both master and doctorate level students are encouraged to apply.
- Demonstrate a commitment to advocacy or service to one of Karen Lopp’s areas of interest or other multi-cultural area.

Award Amount:

- One (1) $500 scholarship will be awarded to one graduate level student selected by the SASP Scholarship Committee.

To apply:

- A Complete Application – Contact Katie McLendon (kmclendon3@student.gsu.edu)
- 2 Page Essay addressing specific efforts that demonstrate your engagement advocacy or service for a multicultural issue.
- Resume/CV
- Two (2) Letters of Recommendation

Application Deadline:

- Tuesday, December 13, 2016 by 5 p.m.

If you have any questions or need a copy of the application, please feel free to contact Katie McLendon, chair of SASP’s Karen Lopp Memorial Scholarship Committee, at kmclendon3@student.gsu.edu.

This scholarship is organized through the GSU Student Affiliates of School Psychology (SASP).