Partner To Teach The ASCA National Model
Directors
Counselor Educator: Erin Mason

School Counselors: Alexandra Huguelet, Dawn Mason, Laura Ross

Georgia State University
School Counseling Students: Natassia Basto, Lizzie Martin, Laura Orozco, Gabby Smith, Aubrey Banks, Melissa Billet
Our Playbill

Video Introduction
Cohort and Course Information
Student Experiences
Partner School Counselor Perspective
Counselor Educator Perspective
Q&A
The Cast

- 21 Females: 1 Male
- Age range: 20s to 30s
- Diverse backgrounds
- 2 members were previously teachers
Class of 2019
Act One: The Course

- Introduction and Professional Orientation to School Counseling
- First Semester of the Program
- Flipped Classroom
Scene One: The Project

Collaborate with a local school counselor and work in pairs, to develop a simplified version of a comprehensive school counseling program (CSCP) based on the ASCA National Model (2012) and RAMP.
The Star Factor

Research and create new material that can be used in the next year as part of the CSCP

- Calendars
- Newsletters
- Small groups
- Lesson Plans
- Attendance/Behavior Incentives
- Schoolwide Programming
Front of the House

- Nervous because it was our first class in the program
- Overwhelmed by the amount of work needed for the project
- Confused about understanding ASCA and a CSCP
- Pressed for time in a 7 week course
Lights, Camera, Action!

- Stressed due to the vagueness and intense research that some were faced with
- Satisfied with creating something tangible
- Proud to be doing something related to our future career
- Passionate to be contributing to the profession
Curtain Call

- Grateful to have worked with a real school counselor
- Relieved to have had class time dedicated to the project
- Knowledgeable of a comprehensive school counseling program
- Eager to move forward in the program
- Empowered to know how data can drive our CSCP
ASCA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
REACH FOR THE STARS
LOS ANGELES, JULY 14–17, 2018

The Partner School Counselor Perspective
Back Stage

- Recruiting partners
- Managing anxiety (students)
- Managing expectations (practitioners)
- Changes to the course
  - Online CSCPs with LiveBinders
Questions?

For syllabi, other sample projects or more information:

Dr. Erin Mason
emason15@gsu.edu